HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS AFTER 35 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a letter from Mr. William Gill, Maria Street, Weymouth, dated May 14, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—At the age of 18 my wife (now 54) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been getting worse, and greatly inflamed. Her medical attendant, after trying various means, pronounced her incurable, and for nearly three years she was confined entirely to rest and sleep. During the whole of this period she suffered excessively, and at times her pain was intense. I had often seen your Pills and Ointment advertised, and at last resolved to give them a trial, as she had tried almost everything else without effect, but to my great delight and astonishment, before she had used the first pot of Ointment I was glad to find she was much relieved, and by the time she had finished the second pot she was entirely free from pain, and able to walk about the house without crutches, which she had not been able to do for three years. She continued the Pills and Ointment for about two months longer, when her legs perfectly healed, and have remained so ever since, although she has had to undergo much fatigue and anxiety in attending to me during a severe illness. I feel it my duty to make this statement, that other sufferers may benefit by the same means which have proved so successful in my wife's case.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A VERY BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Abbott, Baker, Queen, of Bushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated March 15, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of a severe accident, which I met with by coming in contact with the shaft of a passing Gas Work, accompanied by a compound fracture. The limb was in a most dreadful state, and the pain and inflammation were so great that I was confined to my bed for nearly twelve months, during which time I had recourse to various medical advisers, but without deriving any benefit. Having seen your Pills and Ointment advertised, I was induced to try them, and I am happy to say that I was perfectly cured by your invaluable remedies, after having taken only a few boxes of the Pills and two pots of the Ointment. I feel it my duty to make this statement, that other sufferers may be induced to have recourse to your Pills and Ointment, and I shall be happy to answer any inquiries that may be addressed to me.

(Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN A MONTH.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, Jubilee Gas Works, Accrington, Lancashire, dated December 10th, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—My wife has suffered from a bad breast for nine months, and during that time had the best medical attendance, but without any benefit. Having seen your Pills and Ointment advertised, I was induced to try them, and before I had used the first pot of Ointment I was glad to find she was much relieved, and by the time she had finished the second pot she was entirely free from pain, and able to walk about the house without crutches, which she had not been able to do for three months. She continued the Pills and Ointment for about two months longer, when her breast perfectly healed, and has remained so ever since, although she has had to undergo much fatigue and anxiety in attending to me during a severe illness. I feel it my duty to make this statement, that other sufferers may be induced to have recourse to your Pills and Ointment, and I shall be happy to answer any inquiries that may be addressed to me.

(Signed) WILLIAM ATKINSON.

Their truth of this statement can be proved by Mr. W. F. England, Chemist, 15, Market Place, Huddersfield.

Remarkable effects of Lightning.

During a thunder shower on the 8th instant, the house of Mr. Joseph Harris, in Williamsburgh, was struck by lightning, and the glass all broken out and the house very much injured. At the time of the shock, there were twelve persons in the house, including several visiters and others who had taken shelter from the rain, among them Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Briggs and Miss Charlotte Holden, daughter of the late Dr. G. W. Holden of this city.

The house was struck in various parts, while the company felt as though they were enveloped in a sheet of fire. Miss Holden states that her sight, hearing and power of motion, left her, and she fell upon the floor, retaining however, most perfectly her consciousness. She tried to scream, and tried to move, but in vain. She supposed she was dying, and then came thoughts of home and of her widowed mother, and of the life beyond. It was a time of prayer. In a short time her sight was restored, and she was taken out into the rain, and water poured upon her. Her hearing was partially restored, and after a time the numbness left one side, but remained for several hours in the other side, rendering it impossible for her to walk. Her clothes were torn and burnt, one of the sleeves of her sack, rent into atoms, her watch broken and her shoe blown to pieces. Mrs. Harris was sitting near Miss Holden when the lightning passed down the side of the chimney, passed entirely round Mrs. Harris' waist and arms as she was holding an infant, burning as it passed, leaving the child untouched. Mrs. Harris was prostrated and also several others in the house, but no one was killed and none, on the whole received any permanent injury, and all escaped, with the exception of burns upon two or three, which were healing rapidly at the last accounts.

The house was wrecked, the mantel-piece torn off, the plastering torn, a large piece taken from one of the sleepers and from one of the rafters, and the shingles and clapboards started. A bonnet in the room was torn in many pieces and not a vestige of the wire could be found.

We consider this a marvellous escape, there being so many persons exposed and the shock so severe. Miss Holden we deem lightning proof.

In a letter written to her mother, Miss Holden says: "What but an Almighty Father's hand could have shielded us, while this fiery and dreadful agent was tearing and burning about us? Oh may it teach us that the life thus preserved to us, should be devoted to His service.

Tell my brothers to remember this event. Tell them that upon their conduct while in health, will depend their feelings when the hour of death draws nigh. If they have been good the moment will be one of joy and not of pain, and come it slowly or quickly, they will only feel that they are going to meet Him they have trusted on earth, together with those beloved friends who have gone before. Yet I would not have them fear a thunder shower more than before, for in this very case, it may be seen how wonderfully we may be preserved, even in moments of the greatest danger."

☞ The Bangor Jeffersonian contains a startling notice of Gen Scott endeavoring to cast a doubt as to his possession of courage. If that is the mode of attack upon the heroic Old General, so be it. If the fact of Gen. Scott's courage is not yet established in the American mind and in the history of the country, then nothing is established, nothing fixed, nothing certain and history is a cheat and a lie. But such is not the case, for every intelligent American knows, and the history of the country bears ample record of the fact that Gen. Scott is a man of heroic courage, of vast military skill and as a leader of armies he has no superior. Dastardly and mean must be the spirit of any American, who, at this day, can employ himself in endeavoring to beat down the noble character of one of the defenders of the country, the heroic leader of our armies, the successful commander of our forces, who has by hard fought and obstinate battles brought so many victories to our arms and to gild with a halo of renown so many bright pages in the history of our country. A creature who can engage in a work so false and infamous must possess the blood of a yellow skinned American and is fully to pander to ignorance and prejudice.

The American people are not so debased, not so lost to honor, not so ungrateful as to be made to doubt the courage, the skill, the patriotism of Gen Winfield Scott, and the editor of the Jeffersonian will find that he takes nothing by his movement, but only exposes himself to the scorn and loathing of all true men, and proves to his readers his capacity and willingness to falsify the plainest point and of course entirely unworthy of any confidence whatever.

The Fisheries on the Northeastern Coast.

We publish to-day, an interesting official notice from the Department of State, from which it will be seen that difficulties of a serious nature have arisen between Great Britain and this country, respecting the fisheries on the North eastern Coast. The nature of the misunderstanding is fully explained by Mr. Webster, the Secretary of State, in the document referred to.

(Official.)

The American Fisheries.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, July 5, 1852.

Information of an official character, has been received at this Department to the following effect:

"The late Ministry of England was opposed to the granting of bounties, on principle; and in consequence, it steadily refused to give the necessary assent to acts of the Colonial Legislatures, granting bounties to the fisheries. The Colonies complained severally, of this interference with their local affairs, and they further complained that the government declined to enforce the provisions of the Fishery Convention of 1818, and thereby permitted American fishermen to encroach upon the best fishing grounds, from which, under the legal construction of the treaty, they ought to be excluded.

"With the recent change of Ministry in England, has occurred an entire change of policy. The present Secretary of State for the Colonies, Sir John Pakington, has addressed a circular letter to the Governors of the several North American Colonies, an extract from which is as follows:

"Downing street, May 29, 1852.

"Among the many pressing subjects which have engaged the attention of Her Majesty's Government, there is none which has a stronger claim upon their anxious consideration at this moment, than the state of the fisheries, and of the questions relating to the protection of the fisheries, and of rights connected therewith, which have been for some time past the subject of complaint on the part of the Provincial authorities. I have therefore felt it my duty, on taking office, to direct my attention to this subject, and to ascertain whether it was not possible to arrive at some satisfactory settlement of the questions which have been so long in dispute between Her Majesty's Government and that of the United States.

"I have first to state to you, that Her Majesty's Government have taken into their serious consideration all the representations upon this subject, contained in the despatches noted in the margin, and have caused to be prepared the papers which will be found enclosed herewith. I do not think it necessary to trouble you with any detailed observations upon the various topics discussed in those papers, as I am not aware that any additional information is likely to be obtained, which can throw further light upon the matter in dispute. I will therefore proceed briefly to state to you the views which Her Majesty's Government have been led to take of the subject, and the course which they propose to adopt.

"With regard to the question of promoting the fisheries of the British Colonies by the means of bounties, Her Majesty's Government, although they do not feel disposed to sanction any interference with the trade of other countries, which is not clearly justified by the principles which regulate the commerce of this country, are still disinclined to prevent those Colonies by the imposition of differential duties, or otherwise, from adopting any measures which they may deem most conducive to their own prosperity and welfare.

"The vessels of war mentioned in the above circular despatch, are expected to be upon the coasts of British North America, about the commencement of the month of July next; and this vessel has directed to the fishing grounds, having instructions to warn all foreign vessels, which they may find within three miles from the coast of British North America, that they are infringing the Convention of 1818, and are liable to seizure and confiscation. And should any vessels be found within the three miles limit, the Commander of the vessel of war is directed to seize such vessel, and to send her into the nearest port, in order that she may be proceeded against in the Vice Admiralty Court of the Province to which such port belongs, and that the vessel may be condemned in the penalties incurred by the violation of the Convention.

"At the same time, as I wish, in the last instance, an American fishing vessel, driven by stress of weather into Miramichi, in the Province of New Brunswick, or into Passamaquoddy Bay, or any other bay, harbour or creek of the British Provinces, except for the purposes of shelter, repairing damages, and obtaining wood and water, as they are usually understood, is an attack or recess of the sea entering into the actual harbour, or the mouth of a river, or any part of the sea inclosed by headlands; and also that in any case where a fishing vessel may be driven into port by stress of weather, or for the purpose of obtaining wood or water, or repairing damages, she shall depart and put to sea with all convenient speed.

"I have to request that you will bring the contents of this despatch, and of the papers which accompany it, under the notice of the Governor of the Island of Newfoundland, and of the Governor of Canada, in order that they may give the necessary directions to the officers employed in the service of protecting the fisheries, as to the manner in which they are to carry into execution the provisions of the Convention of 1818, and thereby prevent the recurrence of the complaints which have been preferred by the Government of the United States.

"I have also to request that you will bring the contents of this despatch, and of the papers which accompany it, under the notice of the Governor of Labrador, in order that he may be prepared to act upon the same principles in the event of any fishing vessels from the United States resorting to that coast.

"I have, &c., &c., &c.,
"JOHN S. PAKINGTON."

"The Secretary of State has now four armed craft, well manned, cruising on the coasts ready to pounce upon any American vessels who may, accidentally or otherwise, be found fishing within the limits denied by the crown of England.

"It has been agreed with Canada and Nova Scotia that a cutter in the Bay of Fundy to look after American fishermen there; and as Prince Edwards Island has applied for a steam frigate to "Devastation" has been put under the instructions of the Governor of that colony.

"The first article of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain of the 20th of October, 1818, is in the words following:

"Whereas differences have arisen respecting the liberty claimed by the United States for the inhabitants thereof to the fishery on and around the coasts of Newfoundland, and other British dominions in America, it is agreed that a line drawn from the point of Cape Ray to the Rameau Islands, on the western and northern coast of the said Newfoundland, from the said Cape Ray to the Quirpon Islands, on the shores of the Magdalen Islands; and also on the coasts, bays, harbors, and creeks from Mt. Joly, on the southern coast of Labrador, to and through the straits of Belleisle, and thence northwardly indefinitely along the coast, without prejudice, however, to any of the exclusive rights of the Hudson's Bay Company, and that the United American fishermen shall have liberty, forever, to take fish of every kind, except shell fish, on such part of the coast and in such parts of the bays, harbors and creeks of the southern part of the coast of Newfoundland, here above described, and of the coast of Labrador, but so soon as the same or any portion thereof shall be settled, it shall not be lawful for the said fishermen to dry or cure fish at such portion so settled, without previous agreement for such purpose with the inhabitants, proprietors or possessors, or persons having settled there on. And the United States hereby renounce forever any liberty heretofore enjoyed or claimed, by the inhabitants thereof, to take, dry or cure fish on or within three marine miles of any of the coasts, bays, creeks or harbors of His Britannic Majesty's dominions in America not included within the above mentioned limits: provided, however, that the American fishermen shall be admitted to enter such bays or harbors, for the purpose of shelter and of repairing damages therein, of purchasing wood and of obtaining water, and for no other purpose whatever. But they shall be under such restrictions as may be necessary to prevent their taking, drying or curing fish therein or in any other manner whatever abusing the privileges hereby reserved to them."

It would appear that a partial and rigid construction of this article, debars vessels of the United States in pursuit of fish from entering into the bays or harbors of the British Provinces, except for the purposes of shelter, repairing damages, and obtaining wood and water. The bay, as is usually understood, is an arm or recess of the sea entering into the land so far that the distance from the head to the opening does not exceed the breadth of the mouth; and it is common to speak of Hudson's Bay, or the Bay of Fundy, although they are very large tracts of water.

The British authorities claim that England has a right to exclude from headland to headland, and throughout all the bays, all American fishermen who may follow their pursuits inside of this line. It was undoubtedly an oversight in the Convention of 1818, to provide largely a concession to England, since the United States individually, considered that those vast tracts or recesses of the ocean ought to be open to American fishermen as far up each inlet, as within three miles of the shore.

In 1841, the Legislature of Nova Scotia presented a case for the consideration of the Advocate General, and Attorney General of England, upon the construction of this article, as the Convention. The opinion delivered by these officers of the crown was "that by the terms of the convention American citizens were excluded from any right of fishing within three miles from the coast of British America, and that the prescribed distance of three miles is to be measured from the headlands or extreme points of land next to sea, of the coast or of the entrance of bays or inlets on the coast, and consequently that no right exists on the part of American citizens, to enter the bays of Nova Scotia, there to take fish, although the fishing, being within the bay, may be at a greater distance than three miles from the headlands of the bay—and we are of opinion that the term "headlands" is used in the treaty to express the part of the land we have before mentioned—including the interior of the bays, and the indents of the coast."

It is the construction of the intent and meaning of the Convention of 1818, for which the Colonies have contended since 1841, and which they have desired should be enforced. This, the English government has now it would appear, consented to do, and the immediate effect will be, the loss of the valuable fall fishing to American fishermen; a complete interruption of the extensive fishing business of New England, attended by constant collisions of the most unpleasant and exciting character, which may end in the destruction of human life, in the involvement of the governments in questions of a very serious nature, threatening the peace of the two countries. Not agreeing that the construction is just upon the treaty of confirmed to the inhabitants of the contending parties, this information is, however, made public to the end that those concerned in the American fisheries may perceive how the case at present stands, and be upon their guard. The whole subject will engage the immediate attention of this government.

DANIEL WEBSTER,
Secretary of State.

The New Tariff Project.

WASHINGTON, July 17.

There will be an important tariff movement in the House next week. The project will be brought forward as a Democratic measure, and will be supported by many of the leading democrats in the House and Senate, as it will not conflict with the present views of the Democratic candidates. Ad valorem instead of specific duties, are to form the basis of the new scheme.

Gen. James of R. I. will give the notice in the Senate on Monday.

☞ The fever is raging at St. Domingo.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 17.

The Senate is not in session.

In the House. After the usual opening business, Mr Stace introduced a bill to admit railroad iron free of duty. The bill was read twice. Mr Jones of Tennessee, moved to lay it upon the table.

The motion was lost by—yeas 74, nays 79.

Mr Tracy then moved to refer the bill to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

A motion was made to lay the bill on the table, which was carried—yeas 85, nays 69.

The House, on motion, went into Committee of the Whole, and took up for consideration the Indian Appropriation bill.

Mr Sibley offered an amendment appropriating $60,000 for the subsistence of any of the Indian tribes residing within the limits of the United States, who may hereafter be suffering for want of food and proper clothing, provided that in no case shall expenditure be made of any part of the money unless on reliable authority, furnished by the Secretary of the Interior. He said he had been in Minnesota, where whole bands of Indians were almost reduced to a condition of total exhaustion; which rendered their power of emotion nearly impossible, and who had only succeeded in living through the season with the aid of private individuals. Their suffering condition is increasing from year to year, and, within the last few months upwards of 40 or 100 Indians have died of actual starvation in that Territory.

Mr Phelps opposed the amendment. He viewed it as a proposition which would ultimately be extended to relieve the wild Indians on the plain, who plunder our travellers and merchants' teams, and scalp helpless women and children.

Mr Jones of Tennessee, and Mr Johnson of Arkansas, followed on the same side, on the ground mainly that the House had not been officially informed of the facts as detailed by Mr. Sibley.

Mr Burkee advocated the proposition. The Government had made $60,000,000 by its land transactions with the Indians; and must we, as a great nation, thanking of our liberties and justice, refuse to provide for those poor savages who are in a starving condition?

Mr Durham opposed the amendment; and Messrs Giddings, Venable, and Stanton of Ohio, advocated it, when the proposition was rejected—yeas 4, nays 78. Other amendments were acted on, when the committee rose and the House adjourned.

Old "Lundy's Lane."

AIR—"Carry me back, &c."

Fling out! Fling out!
With song and shout,
Our banners from the wall;
The Old Hero,
Of Mexico,
Receives his country's call!
A thousand times,
In many climes,
Hath victory graced his brow;
Shall we fall back,
In this attack,
And leave his colors now?
Chorus—At 'em again,
Old "Lundy's Lane,"
From Maine to Georgia's shore.
Our battle cry
Is, "do or die—
For Union, evermore"

The Locos grin,
And think they'll win,
By shouting "feathers and fleas"
"Soup"—they say—
Can't gain the day,
In a Presidential muss!
But Lundy's Lane,
'Tis very plain,
Can well afford to smile,
When such small game
Attack his fame,
Why don't they aim his pile!
Chorus—At 'em again, etc.

CHARLESTOWN,
Without a speck,
Flings up against the skies;
Their flag we raise,
With songs of praise,
"Union and Compromise"
The South will stand,
A steady band,
With North and East, and West;
Now Locos, pray
Do be wary,
We're charging, all pleased!
Chorus—At 'em again, etc.

BOSTON, 20th.

Hon. Daniel Webster arrived this afternoon to confer officially with Mr Crampton, the British Minister, who is in the city.

W G Robinson, cook of brig Eliza Burgess, jumped overboard in Boston harbor and was drowned.

An Empire, such as the world has never known is rising up on this great Continent. The people of all other countries are thronging to its shore. The importance cannot be over-estimated of the establishment and teaching of a proper system of the cultivation and preservation of its soil.

To condemn any man unheard—without even hearing him explain or defend himself, is doing him an injustice at which he may well be offended.

Most of the allenations of life arise from a want of better acquaintance with each other—with their motives, and what they have really said and done.

GOOD TEAS VERY CHEAP.—We would call attention to the advertisement in to-day's paper, of G. W. Sleeper, 120 Washington street, Boston. A better opportunity to purchase tea for family use seldom offers; and, from the high reputation which this gentleman enjoys for fair dealing, we have no hesitation in recommending him to our readers.—Boston paper.

The editor of the Boston Pathfinder says, we are assured on authority we couldn't undertake to dispute nor at low any one else to, that the Boston Chemical Washing Powder is superior in cleansing and labor saving qualities to all others that have been tried in our house, and they are not a few. jy21 3dtkw

Great Historical Mirror —OF— AMERICA!

Will open at Market Hall on MONDAY EVENING, July 19th, for a few days only.

THIS Painting is without doubt the greatest work of Art ever exhibited in this Country being painted on nearly 20,000 square feet of Canvas and an expense of upwards of $15,000. It represents the principal events in the History of our Country for almost 400 years—beginning from the landing of Columbus in 1492 to the battle of New Orleans in 1815, embracing as it does a greater variety of scenes than any former subject that could be presented—giving a correct history of our country from its settlement as a feeble colony to its present position occupying the highest pinicle of National Glory.

The Proprietor feels confident in saying he never can be more profitably and pleasantly spending them in acquiring a correct knowledge of our Country's History!

Bangor Air-Tight COOKING STOVE

THE best Cook Stove ever introduced to this or any other people.

Having secured the sole agency of this very desirable Stove, I take great pleasure in offering it to my customers and the public. This Stove was invented expressly for this eastern market, by those experienced and expert Stove manufacturers Messrs. Estes & Whittier, who know, and have appreciated the wants of this enlightened people. It is now offered to the public with the fullest confidence in its merits, and as superiorly over every other Cooking apparatus ever introduced for convenience for Boiling, Broiling, Frying, &c., as it is unsurpassed, and its extensive and beautiful Oven for Baking and Roasting, will at once recommend itself to the fair ones. One very important feature is, it has very smooth and smooth castings, and being manufactured in this city, can at all times be repaired, if ever necessary, at a trifling expense without subjecting one to wait for castings to be ordered from New York, Rhode Island or elsewhere. Every Stove is warranted one year, and one not giving entire satisfaction may be returned and the money will be refunded, after 30 days' trial.

—ALSO—

A great variety of other patterns of cooking Stoves, such as the

Our State, Bay State, Empire State, Granite State, State of Maine, &c.,

All of any of which will be sold at extremely low prices.

Elevated Oven Stoves—Hamden 3 and 4 Boiler and two Oven—Boston two oven Stoves, Forrest Queen, &c—and that very beautiful pattern of Cottage Parlor Cook Stove, and in fact every variety of Stove for Cooking or warming, worthy of notice, can be found at the Central Street Store and Furnace Depot, No 16, 17, and 19.

25,000 Sold per Year!

The Unsurpassed and Unsurpassable

Bay State Stove,

OF SIX SIZES, of heavy and smooth castings—price from $15 to $50—celebrated for its whole cooking apparatus, carrying off the smoke in broiling, and not to be excelled in baking, frying, boiling, &c., &c., in durability and economy—may be had as heretofore, at the well-known and long established

N. JOHNSON,

Who is SOLE Agent, and always sells both for this market, for the sale of the celebrated Stove above named, of which 25 000 were sold the past year, and of which some 30,000 will not be more than sufficient to supply the demand the present year.

The BAY STATE is sold and warranted as usual. Returned after an unsatisfactory trial of 30 days, the price paid will be refunded, together with interest and cost of returning.

Persons purchasing the BAY STATE, and desiring repairs, are not subjected to the trouble of sending to Rhode Island or New York for castings, nor to wait to Bangor for them. AS I HAVE THEM ON HAND.

A CHALLENGE OF $50

Is proposed, that 50 Stoves of six sizes, of any other pattern than the BAY STATE, (for which I am sole Agent,) can not be produced which will compare with the 50 I now have on hand, in thickness and smoothness of Castings, or in facility and capacity of broiling, baking, boiling, or other cooking requisite.

☞ The public are especially requested not to mistake a Stove called the "IMPROVED" BAY STATE, which is a cheaper and inferior article, of thinner and less durable castings, and which is sometimes advertised without the word Improved as a prefix, for the original and genuine BAY STATE, which has been so generally and thoroughly tested and admired.

All other kinds of STOVES constantly on hand, as above, which will be sold at reduced prices.

PATENTS.
American and Foreign Office.
AGENCY FOR BUSINESS
WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON.
No. 22 State Street, Boston.

I. S. EDDY, late Commissioner of Patents, Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th sec. of the act of 1837.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transaction of Inventions and adopted a more expeditious mode of securing them, to the Patent Office, where by a Patent may be secured about six weeks sooner than the common way, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and Drawings for Patents and to render advice in legal and equitable matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and the employment of Agents, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of personally explaining their inventions and of conferring in respect to them, in person, with the Examiner having charge of the case, and thus frequently learning in a few hours what might otherwise require weeks of correspondence to ascertain.

The experience of fifteen years' practice, an extensive collection of the Patent laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford inventors, desirous of procuring Patents, assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult to attain.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few if any persons acting in that capacity who had so much success in the Patent Office, and there were none who did it with more skill, fidelity and promptness. Mr. Eddy is one of the best informed Solicitors of the United States, and may confidently employ a person more competent and true to attend to any business entrusted to him in the Patent Office, and more capable of rendering valuable services to inventors than he will be found. I have no hesitation in recommending him to the favorable consideration of the public.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

DR. FONTAINE'S BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS.
As Extracted from Nature's Laboratory for Healing and Beautifying the Human Countenance.

HIGHLY recommended by the faculty of almost every European city, and established under the patronage of almost every Physician in England and Paris, and thousand of individuals who make daily use of it in New York, Philadelphia and Boston—it is the greatest luxury a lady or gentleman could wish for the improvement of health, the comfort and personal appearance, and its delicate results are sensational and the delightful vibrance it imparts to complexion and form, is surprising.

From a view of the comparative merits of the Balm of a Thousand Flowers!
with all other cosmetics, consists in a most genuine in its possession as a part of its compound the powerful Medical Virtues of each Shrub and Flower—

SECOND—Increases the growth and increases the Hair, causing it to curl in the most natural manner.

It eradicates the head from dandruff giving vigor, health and life to the very roots of the hair.

THIRD—It is of superior Article for Shaving being superior to all descriptions of Soaps, Creams, Pastes, &c.

As a DENTRIFICE for cleansing the Teeth, it is by far the most medicinal of any compound yet discovered, preventing decay, relieving pain, all gums and tenders, the teeth as white as alabaster.
